Event overview:

WyomingPBS will be hosting a screening of The Bozeman Trail: A Rush to Montana’s Gold, a co-production of WyomingPBS and Montana PBS. This film documents the trail which became a shortcut to newly discovered gold fields in Montana Territory. A panel discussion with producer Tom Manning will follow the screening. Light snacks will be served.

About the documentary:

The Bozeman Trail was a shortcut to the newly discovered gold fields of Montana Territory. Cutting through the heart of Indian country, it provoked a clash of cultures that exploded into warfare, destruction and tragedy. It was a singular road that changed this part of the American west forever.
